JUNIJ, JULIJ, AVGUST, SEPTEMBER:

Staro kazensko pravo si ni prizadevalo za poboljšanje delikventa, temveč za ponovno vzpostavitev pravice s prizadejanjem telesnih muk tistemu, ki je prekršil splošno priznani red. Tematiko lahko obravnavamo z več različnih vidikov, kot so zgodovinski kontekst, pravni predpisi takratnega časa, odnosi v družbi, socialni status, moralne vrednote ter številni drugi. Vse to govorji o kompleksnosti teme, po drugi strani pa je bila tovrstna praksa v sodnih postopkih v predmodernem obdobju novega veka nekaj skoraj vsakdanjega. Tudi takratna Ljubljana v tem oziru ni bila izjema, saj ohranjeni viri pričajo o preiskovalnih postopkih, ki so se odvijali za zidovi ljubljanske Trancé, o izvrševanju sramotilnih kazni pred mestno hišo, kjer so nekoč stali sramotilni steber, kletka in klop, kakor tudi o Friškovcu, kjer so se z rabljevim zamahom izvrševale smrtne obsodbe. Vse to je bortovalo odločitvi, da v letu 2015 mineva natanko 200 let od odprtja Kaznilnice na Ljubljanskem gradu – institucije, nastale na podlagi modernega kazenskega zakonika iz leta 1803, ki se je odmikal od stare kaznovalne prakse.

MAY: 9.00 am–8.00 pm

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST, SEPTEMBER:

9.00 am–9.00 pm

Ancient penal law did not aspire to rehabilitating the delinquent but rather to re-establishing justice by submitting those who violated the generally accepted order of law to physical suffering. The topic can be treated from a range of different perspectives, such as the historical context, the legal regulations of the time, the relations in society, social status, moral values and many others. While this indicates the complexity of the topic, the fact is that this kind of practice was almost an everyday occurrence in judicial procedures of the early modern period. Ljubljana of that time was no exception to the rule, with the preserved documents bearing witness to the interrogations that took place behind the walls of the Trancé building in Ljubljana, and to the execution of humiliating punishments in front of the Town Hall, where there once stood a pillory, a fool's cage and a bench, and at Friškovec, where capital punishment was carried out by executioners dealing the fatal blows. All of this contributed to our decision to place an exhibition of this kind in the Casemate, as well as the fact that 2015 marks exactly 200 years since the Penitentiary was opened.

Otrokom, mlajšim od 12 let, priporočamo ogled razstave v spremstvu staršev ali skrbnikov.

We recommend that children of less than 12 years of age view the exhibition accompanied by their parents or guardians.

Vodeni ogled

Ob razstavi pripravljamo tudi zanimivi vodeni ogled, ki ga bodo izvajali strokovno usposobljeni grajski vodniki. Podrobnejše razumevanje poteka takratnega kazenskega procesa – od ječe prek zasljevanja do izvršitve sodbe – nam bosta ob ogledovanju omogočila tudi kostumirana karakterja – ljubljanski rabelj Hans in čarovništva obtožena Anica; njuna zgodbu temelji na dejanskem čarovniškem procesu, ki se je v Ljubljani odvijal konec 17. stoletja. Na koncu vodenega ogleda na primeru Kaznilnice na Ljubljanskem gradu spoznamo, kako pod vplivom razsvetljenskih idej telesno kaznovanje nadomestijo prostostne kazni in kako se fokus iz javnega kaznovanja, katerega namen je bilo dajanje zgleda in svarilo množicam, naposled preseli na prevzojo posameznega prestopnika.

Guided Tour

Accompanying the exhibition, we also preparing an interesting guided tour, which will be executed by professionally trained castle guides. We will gain a more detailed understanding of the course of criminal procedures of the time, from jail and interrogation to the execution of the sentence, with the aid of costumed characters – the Ljubljana executioner Hans and his victim Anica, who has been accused of witchcraft – in a story that is based on an actual witchcraft trial that unfolded in Ljubljana at the end of the 17th century. Taking the example of the Penitentiary at the Ljubljana Castle, which opened exactly 200 years ago, at the end of the guided tour we will learn how, under the influence of Enlightenment ideas, physical punishment was replaced by detention and the focus shifted from public punishment aimed at serving as an example and a warning to the masses, to rehabilitation of the individual delinquent.
